

CLASSICAL READING COMPETITION SUCCESS

St Mary's achieved significant success in the Classical Association Latin and Greek reading competitions this term.

In the Senior competition, held at St Mary's in January, Lower Sixth student Susanna G won both first prizes in the Open Greek verse section and in the Senior Latin verse reading. Year 9 pupil Anna M won second prize for Intermediate Latin prose reading.

In the Junior competition, held at Coleridge Community College in March, Year 8 pupil Alice D was awarded first prize in the Latin solo reading, and the cast of nine Year 8 girls was placed second out of the seven local schools who entered the Latin play section.
