Pupil Code of Conduct: Sixth Form

Mary Ward is a wonderful role model to our School community: a woman of integrity, discernment, courage, and love. Our code of conduct is designed with these attributes in mind.

Our School values of justice, love, freedom, truth and joy are based on Mary Ward's vision for her schools. In rooting our behaviours in these values, we allow ourselves and others to flourish within what it means to be a community.

Kindness and Respect

Reflecting the School values, I will:

be helpful, kind, tolerant and respectful towards everyone act with honesty and integrity behave calmly and sensibly when moving around school even when teachers are not present take pride in my appearance, following the School Dress Code correctly and smartly, wearing my lanyard take responsibility for my own safety and that of others to the best of my ability behave with courtesy and in a polite and sensible manner avoid behaviour or comments which are intimidating, discriminatory, threatening or bullying

Environment

Reflecting the School values, I will:

respect and take care of the School environment, buildings, grounds and property refrain from littering, vandalism and graffiti, reporting any incidences of these respect my own and everyone's individual property, and not borrow without permission

Learning and Attendance

Reflecting the School values, I will:

arrive at School on time every day, sign in and aim maintain at least 95% attendance attend all assemblies, form prayers and tutorials behave in a way that enables teachers to teach and others to learn by ensuring that I arrive calmly, on time and with correct equipment, ready to engage and participate in lessons take responsibility for completing and handing in work on time, recognising that in the Sixth Form, my learning is increasingly led by me, so I will seek out opportunities to learn, grow and extend my skills follow school rules, policies and procedures for pupils
