

Reading Times

Christmas 2018

Behind many good films, there's often a great book.

This guide to films that are based on books on TV this Christmas gives a glimpse of the breadth of the human imagination in the stories that we tell: stories that comfort and inform us, that entertain and thrill us, that keep us on the edge of our seats or up late into the night as we read just one more page... stories that make us think about ourselves and others, and most often, about our place in our friendships, our families and society itself.

Most of you will come across this guide in your school libraries. Your librarians are the real superheroes - making sure that you are surrounded by stories that can transport you to new worlds and different times, make you laugh out loud, scare you silly or even make you cry (if that's what you want). Why not go along to your library and borrow a book for the holidays?

If you're not sure what to pick, just ask your librarian for help.

Happy viewing - and reading!

Librarian picks

Kirsty Hughes,
Learning Hub Manager
at St Martin's School in Solihull chooses
The Running Man, Never Go Back and
The Rainmaker.

Having read every book
by each author she loves their masterful storytelling and fast paced plots which make their books impossible to put down.

Caroline Roche,
Eltham College chooses
The Jungle Book as a childhood favourite, Hogfather as she is a huge Terry Pratchett fan,
and although not in this guide but currently in the cinema - Mortal Engines, a wonderful steampunk fantasy, with a strong female heroine.

Sally Perkins,
LRC Manager at Beauchamps
High School
chooses

Yes Man which made her say yes more often and led to lots of new adventures. She's also looking forward to the new adaptation of Watership Down having read that as a young child.

Her final choice is Miracle on 34th Street as her ideal Christmas film!

Sarah Seddon, Open
Learning Centre Manager
at Gillotts School chooses Chitty Chitty Bang Bang - a childhood favourite that makes her laugh and cry, We're Going on a Bear Hunt - a magical story she read with her daughter, and Julie and Julia - as it inspired her to start writing her blog again.

Librarian picks

Mrs Day from Falinge Park High School in Rochdale chooses Wuthering Heights as it reminds her of home, War and Peace as she studied that period of history at university and Matilda - her favourite

Roald Dahl story about a girl who loves to read!

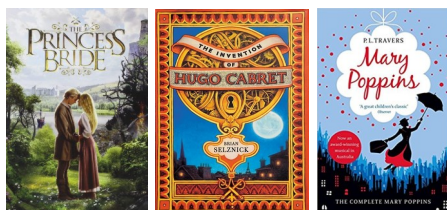

Aine Garvey, Librarian at King Edward VI Camp Hill School for Boys, Birmingham chooses

Ponyo - a funny, magical introduction to anime, Brooklyn - a compelling and moving story about a young girl who immigrates to New York in the 1950s, and Young Sherlock Holmes - part Sherlock, part Indiana Jones... look out for the dancing cakes!

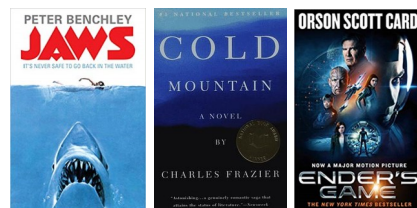

Stella Chevalier, Librarian at Old Palace of John Whitgift School in Croydon chooses The Princess Bride - a heartwarming, modern fairytale for all the family, The Invention of Hugo Cabret - a unique book that takes you on Hugo's quest to uncover a mystery through it's amazing illustrations, and Mary Poppins - Mary is very different in character in the books. Why not read and compare to see which version of Mary Poppins you like best?

Tom Neilsen, Librarian at The Grange Senior School, Cheshire chooses Jaws - both the book and film catapult you with the unrelenting momentum of a shark attack, Cold Mountain - it's a long time since Tom read this book, but he still remembers the way it made him feel, and Ender's Game - this book is impossible to sum up in a few sentences, but it draws you in and captivates you like few others with characters that live long in the memory.

Librarian picks

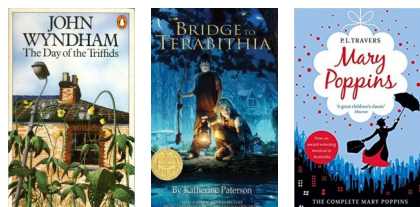

Ms O'Brien, School Librarian at Arden Academy in Solihull chooses The Grinch - as it makes her laugh as much now as it did when she first read it, Nim's Island - as she loved the film's message about bravery it inspired her to read the book after seeing the film, and Bridget Jones' Diary - as it makes her laugh and has a perfect Christmassy ending.

Helen Farrar, Librarian at Cockermouth School chooses The Day of the Triffids - a classic dystopian novel that was well ahead of its time, Bridge to Terabithia - a wonderful, heartbreaking read that was banned in some US states, and Mary Poppins - books which communicates the magic of Mary Poppins, even though they tell a very different story to the film.

Jayne Gold, Librarian at Broke Hall Community Primary School in Ipswich chooses Ethel and Ernest - a funny, evocative and poignant story, Matilda - a life affirming, joyous story, and Zog - a wonderful tale of a small dragon desperate to do well.

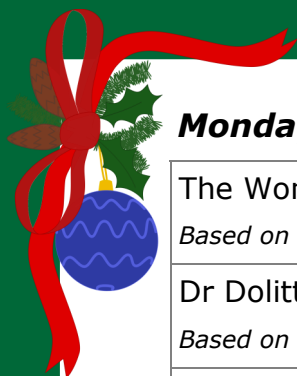

Ms Berry from Stanley Park High School near Croydon chooses Little Women as it's one of her favourite books, Housewife,49 an extraordinary housewife living in exceptional times, and Dr Dolittle as a book which fired her imagination as a child.

Dominic Carney, Library Manager at Mill Chase Academy in Bordon, Hampshire chooses the book that inspired The Day After Tomorrow as he's interested in climate change, A Christmas Carol as it's so utterly redemptive and Wuthering Heights as a gripping Gothic romance.
